Nadiyah (2016) is a bundle of joy and purveyor of fun!! She is curious, friendly, easy going, and full of life. She enjoys being around people and laughs with delight at every interaction.

Nadia engages in playful activities and is partial to playing peek-a-boo. She likes toys that are up with musical tunes and loves to snuggle. It was story time at home with Wednesday's Child. Nadia settled in for some cuddly story time.

Nadiyah had rough start to her young life. She has some medical and developmental challenges that are being addressed. She's thriving because of physical and occupational therapy and a variety of services that will continue to follow her as long as she needs. Families with hearts for raising children like Nadiyah will receive trainings and continued support.

Nadiyah needs and deserves loving and nurturing life-long advocates by way of an adoptive family. She will bring warmth and joy to her special family and a lot of fun through her engaging and inquisitive spirit.
