

Parent Empowerment Program

Empowering and Supporting Parents with Commercially Sexually Exploited Children

Parents and Caregivers with Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) are invited to a 10-week Parent Empowerment Program, where parents/caregivers will learn and talk about the following in a supportive environment:

TOPICS:

- How and why do children and youth become victims of commercial sexual exploitation?
- Why do children/youth continue to return to their exploiter?
- Who are the exploiters/pimps/traffickers that are victimizing children and youth?
- How does commercial sexual exploitation impact children/youth and the family?
- How can I best communicate and support my child and what are some ways to help my child heal and recover?
- How can I take care of myself and my whole family during this difficult time?

Parent Empowerment Program (PEP) Meetings:

- PEP meetings begin on Wednesday, October 17, 2018 and are held every Wednesday for 10 weeks (Schedule is on the back of this flyer)
- Refreshments will be provided

How do I register?

Complete the attached PEP Registration Form and submit it to Adela Estrada, CSA III. Please note no new additional registrants will be accepted after October 17th.

QUESTIONS? Call Adela Estrada, CSEC Program Manager, at (213) 660-6912 or e-mail estraa@dcs.lacounty.gov
